

Principles of Control of Substances Which are Hazardous to Health

Course ref: 102

This course aims to provide employees working within the Highway Electrical Sector with an understanding and awareness of control of substances which are hazardous and their individual and collective responsibilities under the organisation and legislative policies.

Specific learning outcomes:

- Identification Markings
- How Substances Enter the Body
- Assessment Sheets
- Reducing the Risk
- The Management Role and Responsibilities
- The COSHH User Role and Responsibilities
- First Aid Actions

Duration: 4 Hours

Learners: Maximum of 12

Motus are a registered organisation under the Highway Electrical Registration Scheme

We are also a HESA Approved Training Organisation (AT032) with Lantra Awards Certification provided to successful course candidates.

Motus Training
We Prepare You to Perform